Local Area Information

Morfa Lodge is the perfect location nestled in the foothills of the Snowdonia Mountain Range for that perfect family holiday.

Snowdonia, or Eryri as it's called in Welsh, is home to Snowdon, the highest mountain in the England and Wales. Snowdonia also has the largest natural lake in Wales, as well as many famous villages like Beddgelert, Capel Curig and Betws-y-Coed. Snowdonia attracts thousands of visitors to its spectacular landscape and woodland every year, many people stay in the national park but it is also an ideal daytrip location. There are countless areas to go walking and exploring, as well as a rich cultural history. Using the Morfa Lodge as a base, Snowdonia is an ideal location to visit if you're feeling adventurous!

Out and About

We are literally only a ten minute walk from miles of sandy beach which has been awarded "The Blue Flag" and is renowned for sea fishing and water sports enthusiasts. Close at hand is the Foryd Bay Nature reserve which is a sanctuary for a variety of birds and wild animals, a most enjoyable and tranquil haven for walkers. We are also within easy reach of North Wales cultural and heritage attractions along with the various fun days out North Wales has to offer.

Mighty Caernarfon Castle is possibly the most famous of Wales's many castles. Its sheer scale and commanding presence easily set it apart from the rest-and, to this day, still trumpet in no uncertain terms the intentions of its builder, Edward I.
