Local Area Information

Pen-y-Glol Caravan Park is a great place to relax and unwind. A tranquil family run park located in a beautifully landscaped former quarry on a hill outside of the village of Lloc near Holywell, Pen-y-Glol is ideally situated to explore the delights of North Wales.

Located in the rolling Flintshire countryside near Lloc ,3 miles from Holywell, half a mile from the A55, and just 15 minutes from the coast , Pen-y-Glol is the ideal spot for your holiday home as it sits at the end of the Clwydian range close to an area of outstanding natural beauty (AONB) and boasts glorious views to Eastern Snowdonia and the surrounding countryside.

However this stunning woodland setting is a joy in itself ,pleasantly landscaped and bursting with wildlife. The park is ideal place for rest and relaxation. We have a pool room, mini library, telephone, toilet, laundry facilities and a wooded walk but its endearing features are the beautiful flora and fauna , its air of tranquility & its prime location to access the leisure facilities and spectacular scenery of North Wales.

The historic towns of Holywell and Caerwys are nearby, as is the coast, the mountains and the heather and hill forts of the Denbigh moor lands .Pen-y-Glol is ideally positioned to explore the glorious walking in North Wales , the coast at Talacre , the coastal resorts of Prestatyn, Rhyl Llandudno, the mountains of Snowdonia , the Denbigh Moorlands , Dyserth and Rhuddlan.
