Local Area Information

Abbey Farm Caravan Park, Llangollen, Denbighshire, North Wales is open for 51 weeks of the year providing static caravans, park homes and lodges, alongside self-catering cottages.

Llangollen, North Wales is at the foot of the famous Horseshoe Pass, surrounded by high hills and mountains, bordered by rippling streams and the ancient ruins of Valle Crucis Abbey as a centrepiece. The fast running River Dee is five minutes walk, and also the canal where you will see horse drawn boats. Abbey Farm Caravan Park, has a 12 month licence for static caravans, park homes and lodges, ideal for holidays, a second family home, or a retirement base. We have sites available overlooking the stream which runs through our site. Situated in a quarry surrounded by the softest green trees and plants with a tranquil pond filled with fish and wildlife. This site is well worth a visit to comprehend the peace and tranquillity it holds.

Llangollen has many natural wonders. There are mountains, white water rivers including the spectacular River Dee canals with horse-drawn boats, The Llangollen Steam Railway with steam trains that chug along the Dee Valley, the Horseshoe Pass, the Horseshoe Falls and all in easy reach of Chester and Wrexham. Famous structures, gardens and historic buildings abound, Plas Newydd, home to The Ladies of Llangollen, numerous National Trust properties surround the town and we have the highest and longest aqueduct on the canal system.
