Park Description

Close to the bay of Benllech on the eastern side of Anglesey, Min y Ffrwd Caravan Park can be found near the small Welsh village of Brynteg. Close to all local amenities, Min y Ffrwd Caravan Park is a quiet and peaceful holiday park, perfect to get away and escape from it all.

The park is in a rural countryside setting, with stunning woodland scenery but is also only minutes from the nearest beach, giving you the best of both worlds. Only a short distance to the small town of Benllech, here you'll find a good range of shops as well as a sandy beach. With eateries and views a plenty, you will not want to go anywhere else.

Anglesey is an island that is waiting to be discovered, with miles and miles of sandy beaches which line the coastline as well as cycle tracks a plenty across the island. It's up to you how you want to explore the island.
