Faerdre Caravan Park can be found situated on the Llyn Peninsula in North Wales. The park is in the small village of Botwnnog, roughly 10 minutes from the seaside resort of Abersoch and 20 minutes from the coastal town of Pwllheli. The park is in a seemingly rural area, perfect for those who wish to escape from it all when on holiday. The country setting give Faerdre Caravan Park a peaceful atmosphere, where days can be spent unwinding surrounded by the stunning natural scenery.

This area of Wales is most famous for its beaches, from yellow sands and unusually warm waters, the Llyn Peninsula makes for the perfect location to spend your summer holidays. The area of Llyn Peninsula is renowned for having its own micro climate during the summer, making you feel like you are holidaying abroad, not in North Wales.
