Eryrys Caravan Park is a wonderfully quiet, rural park nearby Mold in North Wales. A superb setting for a peaceful, get away from it all park, where holidays can be spent relaxing and unwinding. Whilst its setting may seem obscure, in reality Eryrys is only 4 miles from Mold town center and there is a local public inn only a two minute walk from the park, perfect for those who don't wish to travel far.

Mold is a great Welsh town, located just 10 miles west of the border with England, the market town of Mold offers tradition and culture mixed with a lively atmosphere. From historic churches and prehistoric treasures to modern shops ranging from small boutiques to high street names, Mold is the perfect spot for everyone. You will find fine restaurants nestled with coffee shops amongst street markets and individual shops and a history that embraces over 3,000 years.
