Park Description

Glan Ceirw Caravan Park is conveniently burrowed in stunning valleys between the historic town of Corwen and the ever striking village of Betws y Coed, just off the A5. The location of the park is just perfect, giving you all you could ask for at your fingertips. Set amongst some of the most stunning views North Wales has to offer, Glan Ceirw has everything on site you could possibly need to make your holiday successful. The park has a wide range of facilities including a warm, welcoming bar, a games room featuring a pool table and football table, a separate TV room and lounging area, along with fishing rights for the river which runs through the site.

The park is kept in pristine condition to act not only as a haven for caravan owners and visitors, but also to encourage wildlife to come to the park. The park is family friendly and has a wonderful atmosphere, making you want to return time and time again.
