Park Description

Werngoch Caravan Park is a small, peaceful and friendly park situated in the heart of North Wales, near the small market town of Bala and close to Wales' largest natural lake Llyn Tegid. A truly stunning location for you to enjoy relaxing holidays time and time again.

Werngoch is in a truly stunning location, in the southern area of the Snowdonia National Park, home to spectacular views of rolling hills and countryside. Why would you chose to spend your holidays anywhere else, when you can enjoy the beauty of Wales, this close up? From your caravan on the park, you'll be able to appreciate close views of the nearby mountains, whilst taking a short walk to Werngoch's own private shoreline of Llyn Tegid (Bala lake). There is access for sailing, canoeing or paddleboarding with storage for boats.
