Park Description

Ogwen Bank Holiday Park is set within 12 acres of luscious woodland on the edge of the Snowdonia National Park, in the quaint Welsh town of Bethesda. Located in the outskirts of the spectacular Ogwen Valley, the park has a unique backdrop of Ogwen Falls, with the river Ogwen running directly alongside the park.

In this part of North Wales there is so much to do and explore to keep you and your family entertained. Ogwen Bank is in the heart of Snowdonia, making it easy to take advantage of the spectacular views of the area, whether you want to walk up Snowdon, the tallest mountain in Wales, or try an easier route, exploring the mountains closer to the park. Next to the park you'll find the fastest zip line in Europe, known as zip world.
