Park Description

Situated near the picturesque Welsh town of Bala, on the edge of the Snowdonia National Park, Pale Wood Holiday Park can be found, hidden amongst 43 acres of private woodland. From the park you'll see spectacular views across the Dee Valley and towards Snowdonia, of the rolling hills and woodlands, a perfect place to escape from the rest of the world. The park is teeming with wildlife, putting you at one with nature.

On site, the park is home to a range of 5* facilities. There is a dedicated park reception and Information Centre, where you'll always be greeted by a friendly face looking to help. On site, you'll also find a small coarse fishing lake, for you to pass the time, whether you're an experienced or new fisher. Directly from the park you'll also find a whole host of walks, if you're after a leisurely stroll or something a bit more challenging, there are paths which suit all types of walkers.
